

I am a Greek-American who has been paying strong attention to the ridiculous complaints of the American right posted here on the FCC site concerning the Olympic Games opening ceremony and the alleged lewdness that it portrayed. A handful of right-winged evangelists have no place to dictate what 4 billion people in the world considered magical. DO NOT FINE NBC FOR BROADCASTING THE BEST OPENING CEREMONY EVER. It would not be advantageous to choose a few Bible-thumpers over the bulk of humanity. Furthermore, I would take it as a personal affront to my heritage if you did.
